

Frazier Cleaning Solutions LLC
We'll get you clean

Communication is essential

ABOUT FRAZIER CLEANING SOLUTIONS

We have based our business on the fundamental principle that communication is essential. Swept is a janitorial software program used by Frazier Cleaning Solutions to help with scheduling and task management.

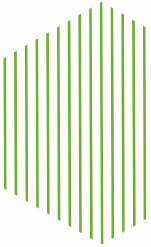

To continually deliver top-notch service, our team of experts ensures open lines of communication at every level of our company. Frazier Cleaning Solutions will schedule a time to visit your location to understand your janitorial requirements before we start working together. Then, we'll:

1. Determine the extent of the required services.
2. Create a schedule
3. Determine the pricing

Your project manager will assist in carrying out the initial cleaning when you are ready to proceed with your commercial cleaning service and make sure all of your needs are constantly addressed. To guarantee that you receive the superior quality of service for which Frazier Cleaning Solutions is renowned, your project manager will keep in touch with both our staff and you going forward.
